Communiqué

Resistencia Civil de Venezolanos en el Exterior (RECIVEX) takes a stance in view of the latest act of treason perpetrated against the Venezuelan nation by its president, (r) Lieutenant Colonel Hugo Chávez Frías.

1- Venezuela is currently facing an acute shortage of electric energy, product of the apathy and irresponsibility that characterize the present government that during the past eleven years has been in power, has not assigned the necessary resources to execute maintenance plans for the existing power plants or hydroelectric dams in spite of warnings and recommendations made in due time by planning and technology managements of the different companies in the sector.

2- The Venezuelan president is not only deceiving the country when he attributes the shortage problem to natural causes such as El Niño and droughts, but is being disrespectful towards the highly qualified and professional Venezuelan engineers, who can very well solve the problem. The president lies again to his country when he brings a Castro-Cuban communist, Ramiro Valdés, known for his extensive track record in tortures and assassinations of Cuban dissidents, as an expert to solve the Venezuelan energy crisis.

3- The henchman, General Ramiro Valdés, arrived in Venezuela wearing his military uniform to work on a vital problem for the country and in strategic facilities, which should be protected and have restricted access to a Cuban thug with obscure intentions. Such action constitutes a violation to the Venezuelan sovereignty and is considered an act of TREASON on the part of the President of the Republic.

4- The arrival of Ramiro Valdés in Venezuela to “fix” the energy issue is only an excuse to try to hide Valdés’ expertise in which the government of Hugo Chávez has a main interest: repression, torture and murder, not only of the political dissidents, but of the people who, tired of violence, hunger, inflation, unemployment, lack of housing, corruption, unapproved gifts to foreign countries and the overall disaster reigning in our country after eleven years of a miserable government, will soon burst in a social explosion, for which Chavez will need the services of Valdés to kill innocent people, just as it happened on April 11, 2002.

5- This is why we ask the man who calls himself Bolivarian to remember that Bolivar gave our country liberty and independence, but died in exile victim of men who acted just like the one who unfortunately wants to be president for life of our battered country. The human rights of Venezuelans have been constantly and increasingly violated by the present regime; the presence of the Cuban thug, Valdés, in our country has the sole purpose of intensifying the opprobrious and humiliating abuse to which the president submits constantly the nation.
